

Please stop the domination of the public air waves by giant corporations that care nothing for the interests of ordinary working people. The capture of the public electromagnetic spectrum by global corporate empires will be another step toward the death of democracy in the United States.